

Scotland's 3rd National Anti-Bullying Conference
The Crowne Plaza, Glasgow
Tuesday 17 November 2009

- 8.30am Coffee and registration
- 9.15am Welcome & introduction Billy Watson, Chief Executive SAMH
- Keith Brown, Minister for Schools and Skills
 - Tam Baillie, Scotland's Commissioner for Children & Young People
 - Heather Gray, Director of Who Cares? Scotland
 - Brian Donnelly, Director of respectme
 - Rights Respecting School award – Sioux Hamilton and Lynn Donnelly, Carleton Primary School, Glenrothes
- 10.45am Break
- 11.00am Experience of a care leaver - Zachari Duncalf
- Anti-Bullying Week competition winners presented with prizes
- 11.45am Morning Workshops (pre-allocated):
- Effective use of Persona Dolls
 - Peer mediation in action
 - Policy through to Practice- Getting it right
 - Bullying and learning disabilities
 - Using drama as a resource with children and young people
- 12.45pm Lunch
- Afternoon session introduced by Sean Stronach, Convener of the National Board, LGBT Youth Scotland
- 1.30pm Young people's debate presented by Port Glasgow and St Andrew's & St Bride's Secondary schools
Facilitated by Glenn Campbell, presenter of 'The Politics Show'
- 2.25pm Break
- 2.40pm Young Gypsy Travellers Lives – Interactive myth-buster quiz
- 3.00pm Afternoon Workshops (pre-allocated):
- Interactive workshop session
 - Islamaphobia and bullying
 - Using drama as a resource with children and young people
 - Peer mediation in action
 - Bullying and Additional Support Needs Learning
 - Policy through to Practice – Getting it right
- 4.00pm Chair's closing remarks